St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Prayer to St. Therese the Little Flower

O glorious St. Therese, whom Almighty God has raised up to aid and inspire His children, I implore your miraculous intercession. You are so powerful in obtaining every need of body and soul from the Heart of God. Holy Mother Church proclaims you “Prodigy of Miracles ... the greatest Saint of modern times”. Now I fervently beseech you to answer my petition and to carry out your promise of “spending Heaven doing good upon earth” and of “letting fall from Heaven a shower of roses”. Little Flower, give me your childlike faith, to see the Face of God in the people and experiences of my life, and to love God with full confidence, and I will fulfill your plea “to be made known everywhere” and I will continue to lead others to Jesus through you. Amen.

(mention requests)

Let us remember the ways of the Little Flower, that in childlike simplicity we shall be pleasing to almighty God for we must do as the Gospel tells us: “Unless we become as little children, we shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.”

Simplicity

The Holy Guardian Angels

Sermon of St. Bernard, Abbot

“He hath given His angels charge over thee.” O wonderful bounty and truly great love of charity! Who? For whom? Wherefore? What has He commanded? Let us study closely, brethren, and let us diligently commit to our memory this great mandate. Who is it that commands? Whose angels are they? Whose mandates do they fulfill? Whose will do they obey? In answer, “He hath given His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.” And they do not hesitate even to lift thee up in their hands.

So the Supreme Majesty has given charge to the angels. Yes, He has given charge to His own angels. Think of it! To those sublime beings, who cling to Him so joyfully and intimately, to His very own He has given charge over you! Who are you? “What is man that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?” As if man were not rottenness, and the son of man a worm! Now why, do you think, has He given them charge over thee?—To guard thee!

With what great reverence should you treat this word! What devotion should you proffer it; what great confidence should you place in it. Reverence because of their presence; devotion because of their benevolence; confidence because of their solicitude. Walk carefully, in all thy ways, as one with whom the angels are present, as He has given them charge. In every lodging, at every corner, have reverence for thy Angel. Do not dare to do in his presence what you would not dare to do if I were there. Or do you doubt that he is present whom you do not behold?

What if you should hear him? What if you should touch him? What if you should scent him? Remember that the presence of something is not proved only by the sight of things.

In this, therefore, brethren, let us affectionately love His angels as one day our future coheirs; meanwhile, however, as counselors and defenders appointed by the Father and placed over us. Why should we fear under such guardians? Those who keep us in all our ways can neither be overcome nor be deceived, much less deceive. They are faithful; they are prudent; they are powerful; why do we tremble? Let us only follow them, let us remain close to them, and in the protection of the God of heaven let us abide. As often, therefore, as a most serious temptation is perceived to weigh upon you and an excessive trial is threatening, call to your guard, your leader, your helper in your needs, in your tribulation; cry to him and say: “Lord, save us; we perish!”

1. There will be Catechism classes after 10:00 AM Mass this morning.
2. October is the Month of the Holy Rosary- as always there is daily Rosary at 7:20 PM in the Abbey Church. Those who can are urged to attend; those who cannot attend are urged to say the Rosary at home. Daily Rosary is a MUST.
